For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." (Matthew 24:37-39)

PARABLES OF THE BIBLE – THE SACRIFICE OF ISAAC

Scripture Readings: Genesis 22:1-18, James 1:13-18, 1 Peter 1:1-7, Acts 9:1-6, Romans 9:6-9, Genesis 15:19, 2 Chronicles 9:26, Nehemiah 9:7-8.

FIRSTLY, GOD TEMPED ABRAHAM TO OBEY HIM: Genesis 22:1-2

SECONDLY, GOD DID NOT TEMPT ABRAHAM TO SIN: James 1:13-18

THIRDLY, GOD'S PURPOSE WAS TO SHOW THE FAITH OF ABRAHAM, NOT TO DESTROY IT:
And He did!

FOURTHLY, WHEN GOD ABANDONS PEOPLE, HE DOESN'T LURE THEM INTO SIN, BUT TAKES HIS HAND OF MERCY OFF THEM – BUT NOTE, HIS HAND WAS ON ABRAHAM:

FIFTHLY, THE PLACE OF TRIAL/TEMPTATION IS A BITTER PLACE – BUT FOR BELIEVERS, THE OUTCOME IS SWEET: The place Abraham offered Isaac to the Lord, as required of him: Moriah – the bitterness of the Lord. 1 Peter 1:1-7

SIXTHLY, LIFE & ITS TRIALS IS NORMALLY HARD.

SEVENTHLY, LIFE & ITS TRIALS FOR STUBBORN SINNERS IS HARDER THAN NORMAL LIFE.
Acts 9:1-6

EIGHTHLY, LIFE & ITS TRIALS FOR MATURE BELIEVERS IS EVEN HARDER AGAIN!

NINTHLY, THIS STORY OF ABRAHAM'S TRIAL IS A SPECIAL TYPE & PARABLE OF THE SACRIFICE OF CHRIST FOR US: The "third day" reminds us that Christ's body was dead three days in the tomb.

BUT ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD: GOD HAD ALREADY GIVEN ISAAC TO ABRAHAM BY PROMISE: Romans 9:6-9

ISAAC WAS MORE THAN JUST A SON – HE WAS THE VERY POSTERITY OF ABRAHAM IN CHRIST – A PARABLE OF CHRIST HIMSELF!

FOR CHRIST & AGAINST ANTICHRIST

3...Weekly Bulletin: Nanango Christian Faith Centre Inc, PO Box 297, Nanango Qld 4615 – 10/12/2023

THE SIMPLE LESSON FOR US IS THAT, WE MUST BE WILLING TO GIVE UP EVERYTHING FOR THE LORD, INCLUDING THE BLESSINGS HE HAS GENUINELY PROVIDED SOME NEVER SEEM TO MATURE IN THE FAITH.

FINALLY, GOD RENEWED HIS PROMISE TO ABRAHAM AFTER HE OBEYED:

GOD'S PROMISES TO ABRAHAM WERE FULFILLED IN DAVID & SOLOMON!

- The promise to Abraham: Genesis 15:18, In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates.
- The fulfilment in Solomon: 2 Chronicles 9:26, And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.
- Nehemiah acknowledged the fulfilment! Nehemiah 9:7-8, 7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;
8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:
- Therefore, all talk of a promised Land in Palestine today is of this world – NOT of God! God performed His promise to Abraham long ago, concerning the land, and He also performed His promise to Abraham, of a Seed (in Isaac) which is Christ the Lord!

BLACK FRIDAY – WHAT IS IT?

IN AUSTRALIA (from Wikipedia)

In Australia, the term is controversial,<sup>[92][93]</sup> as prior to its popularisation as a shopping day, it referred not to shopping at all, but to the devastating Black Friday bushfires that occurred in Victoria 1938–39.<sup>[92][93][94][95]</sup> It was not until the 2010s that it was heavily promoted as a shopping day in Australia by in-store and online retailers, despite backlash and confusion by consumers. In 2011, Online Shopping USA hosted an event on Twitter. Twitter users had to use the hashtag #osublackfriday, which allowed them to follow along and tweet their favourite deals and discounts from stores.<sup>[96]</sup> In 2013, Apple extended its Black Friday deals to Australia.....

The Black Friday bushfires of 13 January 1939, in Victoria, Australia, were part of the devastating 1938–1939 bushfire season in Australia, which saw bushfires burning for the whole summer, and ash falling as far away as New Zealand. It was calculated that three-quarters of the State of Victoria was directly or indirectly affected by the disaster, while other Australian states and the Australian Capital Territory were also badly hit by fires and extreme heat. This was the third-deadliest bushfire event in Australian history, only behind the 1983 Ash Wednesday bushfires and the 2009 Black Saturday bushfires.<sup>[1]</sup>

Fires burned almost 2,000,000 hectares (4,900,000 acres) of land in Victoria, where 71 people were killed, and several towns were entirely obliterated. Over 1,300 homes and 69 sawmills were burned, and 3,700 buildings were destroyed or damaged.<sup>[2]</sup> In response, the Victorian state government convened a Royal Commission that resulted in major changes in forest management. The Royal Commission noted that "it appeared the whole State was alight on Friday, 13 January 1939".

IN THE U.S.A. (from Wikipedia)

Black Friday is the Friday after Thanksgiving in the United States. It traditionally marks the start of the Christmas shopping season in the United States. Many stores offer highly promoted sales at discounted prices and often open early, sometimes as early as midnight<sup>[2]</sup> or even on Thanksgiving. Some stores' sales continue to Monday ("Cyber Monday") or for a week ("Cyber Week").

Black Friday is the busiest shopping day of the year in the United States.<sup>[3][4][5]</sup>

U.S. retailers prioritize Black Friday and Cyber Monday as highly profitable holiday shopping days.<sup>[6]</sup>

Etymology<sup>[edit]</sup>

For centuries, the adjective "black" has been applied to days upon which calamities occurred. Many events have been described as "Black Friday", although the most significant such event in American history was the Panic of 1869, which occurred when financiers Jay Gould and James Fisk took advantage of their connections with the Grant Administration in an attempt to corner the gold market. When President Grant learned of this manipulation, he ordered the Treasury to release a large supply of gold, which halted the run and caused prices to drop by 18%. Fortunes were made and lost in a single day, and the president's own brother-in-law, Abel Corbin, was ruined.

The earliest known use of "Black Friday" to refer to the day after Thanksgiving occurred in the journal, Factory Management and Maintenance, for November 1951, and again in 1952. Here it referred to the practice of workers calling in sick on the day after Thanksgiving, in order to have a four-day week-end. However, this use does not appear to have caught on. Around the same time, the terms "Black Friday" and "Black Saturday" came to be used by the police in Philadelphia and Rochester to describe the crowds and traffic congestion accompanying the start of the Christmas shopping season. In 1961, the city and merchants of Philadelphia attempted to improve conditions, and a public relations expert recommended rebranding the days "Big Friday" and "Big Saturday," but these terms were quickly forgotten.<sup>[7][8][9][10][11][12]</sup>

Thanksgiving's relationship to Christmas shopping led to controversy in the 1930s. Retail stores would have liked to have a longer shopping season, but no store wanted to break with tradition and be the one to start advertising before Thanksgiving. For this reason, in 1939, President Franklin D. Roosevelt issued a presidential proclamation proclaiming Thanksgiving to be the fourth Thursday in November rather than the last Thursday, meaning in some years one week earlier, in order to lengthen the Christmas shopping season.<sup>[18]</sup> Most people adopted the President's change, which was later reinforced by an act of Congress, but many continued to celebrate Thanksgiving on the traditional date.<sup>[18]</sup>

Thanksgiving (United States)

Thanksgiving is a federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November.<sup>[2]</sup> It is sometimes called American Thanksgiving (outside the United States) to distinguish it from the Canadian holiday of the same name and related celebrations in other regions. It originated as a day of thanksgiving and harvest festival, with the theme of the holiday revolving around giving thanks and the centerpiece of celebrations remaining a Thanksgiving dinner.<sup>[3][4]</sup> The dinner traditionally consists of Indigenous cuisine of the Americas: turkey, potatoes (usually mashed or sweet), squash, corn (maize), green beans, cranberries (typically as cranberry sauce), and pumpkin pie. Other Thanksgiving customs include charitable organizations offering thanksgiving dinner for the poor, attending religious services, and watching television events such as Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and America's Thanksgiving Parade as well as NFL football games.<sup>[1]</sup> Thanksgiving is regarded as the beginning of the holiday season, with the day following it, Black Friday, said to be the busiest shopping day of the year in the United States.

New England and Virginia colonists originally celebrated days of fasting, as well as days of thanksgiving, thanking God for blessings such as harvests, ship landings, military victories, or the end of a drought.<sup>[5]</sup> These were observed through church services, accompanied with feasts and other communal gatherings.<sup>[3][6]</sup> The event that Americans commonly call the "first Thanksgiving" was celebrated by the Pilgrims after their first harvest in the New World in November 1621.<sup>[6]</sup> This feast lasted three days and was attended by 90 Native American Wampanoag people<sup>[7][c]</sup> and 53 survivors of the Mayflower (Pilgrims).<sup>[8]</sup> Less widely known is an earlier Thanksgiving celebration in Virginia in 1619 by English settlers who had just landed at Berkeley Hundred aboard the ship Margaret.<sup>[9]</sup>

Thanksgiving has been celebrated nationally on and off since 1789, with a proclamation by President George Washington after a request by Congress.<sup>[10]</sup> President Thomas Jefferson chose not to observe the holiday, and its celebration was intermittent until President Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, proclaimed a national day of "Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens", calling on the American people to also, "with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience ... fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to heal the wounds of the nation". Lincoln declared it for the last Thursday in November.<sup>[11][12]</sup> On June 28, 1870, President Ulysses S. Grant signed into law the Holidays Act that made Thanksgiving a yearly appointed federal holiday in Washington, D.C.<sup>[13][14][15]</sup> On January 6, 1885, an act by Congress made Thanksgiving, and other federal holidays, a paid holiday for all federal workers throughout the United States.<sup>[16]</sup> Under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the date was moved to one week earlier, observed between 1939 and 1941 amid significant controversy. From 1942 onwards, Thanksgiving, by an act of Congress received a permanent observation date, the fourth Thursday in November, no longer at the discretion of the president.<sup>[17][18]</sup>.....

Two colonists gave personal accounts of the 1621 feast in Plymouth. The Pilgrims, most of whom were Separatists (English Dissenters), are not to be confused with Puritans, who established their own Massachusetts Bay Colony on the Shawmut Peninsula (current day Boston) in 1630.<sup>[30][31]</sup> Both groups were strict Calvinists, but differed in their views regarding the Church of England. Puritans wished to remain in the Anglican Church and reform it, while the Pilgrims wanted complete separation from the church.<sup>[32]</sup>

FRIDAY (from Wikipedia)

The name Friday comes from the Old English frīġedæg, meaning the "day of Frig", a result of an old convention associating the Nordic goddess Frigg with the Roman goddess Venus, with whom the day is associated in many different cultures. The same holds for Frīatag in Old High German, Freitag in Modern German, and vrijdag in Dutch.....

The expected cognate name in Old Norse would be friggjar-dagr. The name of Friday in Old Norse is friġ-dagr instead, indicating a loan of the week-day names from Low German;<sup>[4]</sup> however, the modern Faroese name is fríggjadagur. The modern Scandinavian form is fredag in Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish, meaning Freyja's day. The distinction between Freyja and Frigg in some Germanic mythologies is contested.

The word for Friday in most Romance languages is derived from Latin dies Veneris or "day of Venus" (a translation of Greek Aphroditēs hēméra, Ἀφροδίτης Ἡμέρα), such as vendredi in French, venres in Galician, divendres in Catalan, vennari in Corsican, venerdì in Italian, vineri in Romanian, and viernes in Spanish and influencing the Filipino biyernes or byernes, and the Chamorro betnes. This is also reflected in the p-Celtic Welsh language as Gwener.

An exception is Portuguese, also a Romance language, which uses the word sexta-feira, meaning "sixth day of liturgical celebration", derived from the Latin feria sexta used in religious texts where consecrating days to pagan gods was not allowed. ....

In modern times, Friday the 13th is considered to be especially unlucky, due to the conjunction of Friday with the unlucky number thirteen. Such a Friday may be called a "Black Friday".<sup>[11]</sup>.....

In astrology, Friday is connected with the planet Venus and is symbolized by that planet's symbol ♀. Friday is also associated with the astrological signs Libra and Taurus.....

COMMENTS:

To Australians & English, 'Black Friday' has always been any Friday the 13th. To Americans, who apparently started this present mayhem that THEY call 'Black Friday,' it has nothing to do with the number 13.

BUT it has everything to do with fabricated sales gimmicks, AND frenzied Christmas shopping!

It is the start of the Christmas shopping season.

It follows what THEY call 'Thanksgiving.'

"The love of money is the root of all evil" (1 Timothy 6:10).

NOTE THESE EVIL POINTS OF CONSISTENCY ABOUT 'BLACK FRIDAY:

FOR CHRIST & AGAINST ANTICHRIST

8...Weekly Bulletin: Nanango Christian Faith Centre Inc, PO Box 297, Nanango Qld 4615 – 10/12/2023

- The 'Black' in 'Black Friday' is, in every case, a reference to evil – shopping mayhem, taking sickies from work, overshadowing a national event for thanksgiving to God, remembering financial disasters;
- The number '13' is a reference to evil (It's interesting how there is no mention of this in the U.S.A. Black Friday – a totally different concept);
- Frenzied shopping mania is evil, driven by greed;
- 'Christmas' is evil – a Pagan festival, a Roman Catholic gimmick to blend into Paganism; the frenzied attitudes, seeking of carnal pleasure, holiday travels, overspending, all lead to disaster: drunkenness & reveling, family disputes, car accidents etc.;
- American 'Black Friday' is about the Christmas shopping mania – a carnal (ungodly) event;
- Note the corruption in American politics regarding this event.
- 'Friday' has great significance in Catholicism & the Paganism which gave rise to it: Friday is the 6th day of the week (a human number); Friday is named after Frigg/Freyja/Venus (Pagan – similar to all other week days). Friday is big in Catholicism.
- If you are worldly or Catholic, Friday is a 'black' day, weekends are 'black' days of pleasure-seeking, spending, & revelry, & special 'holidays' are even more so. Imagine, if Christmas & Easter alone were banned, road deaths & domestic violence & family breakdown would probably fall by at least half!

Bottom Line: All such special events & days in this world have been corrupted with money and lust in general – even those which started out as a religious observance.

Just imagine if God's people all stuck with the one 'holy-day', the Lord's Day, how much better and safer the world would be.

Exodus 20,

AND God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

It is interesting that drunkenness and gluttony are not mentioned specifically in the Ten Commandments, but of course, they are covered generally by idolatry & covetousness.

Obedience to God's Commandments bring God's blessing on a family or nation.

Disobedience to God's Commandments bring God's curse.

Open Letter to Mayoral Candidate for 2024 Local Government Elections, Gavin 'Spud' Jones 30/11/23

Dear Councillor Jones,

Thank you for your labours for the community to date, and for your brave decision to be a candidate for mayor in 2024.

You will need God's help, and we pray that you might have it. "With God, all things are possible." Without Him, we would not want to contemplate the awful results of government by ungodly men – which we do see unfolding all around us even now.

We want to respectfully remind you, that some of the most fundamental responsibilities of government representatives in this present 'woke,' 'politically correct' time, are often not given any consideration, and this is the cause of an awful downgrade in all of society.

FOR CHRIST & AGAINST ANTICHRIST

10...Weekly Bulletin: Nanango Christian Faith Centre Inc, PO Box 297, Nanango Qld 4615 – 10/12/2023

We understand that it takes real guts, perhaps even the appearance of ‘political suicide,’ to do the right thing in government today, when the whole system is morally and constitutionally corrupt.

In view of these concerns, would you please answer the following:

1. Do you acknowledge that all laws, whether State or Commonwealth, are subject to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1900 (Chapter 12., 5.)?
2. Are you willing to take a genuine oath of allegiance, not merely to serve the people, but in the name of “Almighty God” (Commonwealth Constitution Act Chapter 12., Preamble), with the Bible (Authorised Version) in hand, and of allegiance to the “Crown of the United Kingdom etc.”?
3. Are you willing to put the above required allegiance and oath above United Nations subversion (“allegiance to a foreign power”), whereby ridiculous ‘Sustainability,’ which we all know is neither sustainable, nor good for us, is currently governing all Council policy, under a de facto international Marxist regime, and ruining everything that has made Australia ‘the lucky country’?

In other words, are you willing to really go in to bat for the community and its needs, against foreign oppression, particularly for the poor, jobless, homeless, elderly, and infirm, not just for developers and their lucrative projects (as we see that, over many years, every claimed effort to improve matters has only widened the gap between the rich and poor, and increased the burden on all)?

For example, the ‘housing affordability crisis’ can be largely solved, overnight, with the proverbial stroke of a Council pen, by having the courage to publicly declare that Council will support, and not criminalise, dwelling in sheds and caravans, by people on their own land or land of their family/friends, maintaining due dignity for all. (I believe some Councils have already done this.)

Nobody is thinking outside the ‘box’ on this, because nobody really cares for the poor, or for the basic rights of individuals who are doing no harm to anyone. All bright ideas about housing, without exception, are unaffordable to the average worker/family, let alone the jobless, and all our fake leadership kowtows to the U.N.

To push hard, against the popular tide, bearing in mind that the tide is morally and legally wrong, with God’s blessing may well succeed in changing the whole community for the better, and make those Councillors who do so, very popular at the next election. We need real leadership, not more of the same following of the line of least resistance.

We wish you the blessing of Almighty God, as you go forward in His service – because, according to the Constitution, you are in His service, and you do answer to Him. That is what the oath is all about.

Sincerely in the service of Christ, Crown, & Constitution,
Trevor W. Sullivan,
Nanango Christian Faith Centre.

Ahead Of The Roman Catholic Synod, Pope Francis Appoints 21 New Cardinals And Leads Charge For Migrant Invasion Of Europe

NTEB by Geoffrey Grider, Oct. 2, 2023

Pope Francis is working overtime, appointing 21 new 'friendly' Cardinals and leading the charge to overrun Europe with a massive migrant invasion

Pope Francis on Saturday condemned “belligerent nationalisms” and called for a pan-European response to migration to stop the Mediterranean, where thousands have drowned, from becoming “the graveyard of dignity”. Immigration issues dominated his 27-hour trip to Marseilles, a French port that for centuries has been a crossroads of cultures and religions. On Friday, he said migrants who risk drowning at sea “must be rescued” because doing so was “a duty of humanity” and that those who impede rescues commit “a gesture of hate”.

A Letter Is Discovered Proving The Roman Catholic Pope Pius XII Knew All About The Holocaust And Concentration Camps Yet Did Nothing To Stop It

NTEB by Geoffrey Grider, Sept. 17, 2023

A yellowed letter, dated 14 December 1942, confirms that Pope Pius XII was aware of the crimes committed by the Nazis in the Holocaust extermination camps

Take a good look at this photo of Pope Pius XII at the top of this article, and see the interesting ‘two-finger’ sign he is making. Look familiar? It should, it’s a military sign indicting to ‘go for the kill’. Snipers make this sign. It is also a sign that is connected with Antichrist as you will soon see. In Nazi Germany, when soldiers made their sacred oath to Adolf Hitler, they made this sign as well.

“And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” Revelation 17:5 (KJV)

Pope Pius XII was one of those popes that placed himself in portable thrones, and had himself paraded before the people for worship and adoration, just as Antichrist will do in the time of Jacob’s trouble.

He is also called Hitler’s Pope because of the support he gave the Nazis to be able to carry out their evil plans.

At The Council Of Trent In 1545, The Roman Catholic Church Declared Their Opposition To The Gospel Of The Grace Of God Preached By The Apostle Paul

NTEB by Geoffrey Grider, January 9, 2020

The Roman Catholic Church decided at the 1545 Council of Trent that anyone who believes in salvation by grace through faith alone is anathema.

The Roman Catholic Church declares that anyone who believes in Jesus Christ alone for their salvation, and receives that salvation by grace through faith alone, is cursed by them. This is what they decided at the Council of Trent.

Perhaps the most defining event of the Roman Catholic church since its inception in 325 AD was the Council of Trent which was the Vatican's response to the then brand-new movement of something called the Protestant Reformation.

At the Council of Trent, many important things were decided and officially codified into the (Roman) Catholic canon of teaching.

They decided that the Biblical doctrine of salvation by grace through faith alone was bad for business, and had to go. So, out it went.

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Ephesians 2:8, 9 (KJV)

The Economic Thought of the Roman Catholic Church

Common Property – Fascism

Thomas Aquinas is a Roman Catholic philosopher and theologian who is considered by the Roman Catholic Church to be its greatest theologian and a doctor of the Church.

His thinking is apparently “foundational for understanding the economic thought of the Roman Church-State.” Aquinas believed in the socialist idea of communal possessions.

He wrote in Summa Theologiae ii-ii 5th article, “the possession of all things in common is a natural law... ‘the possession of all things in common and universal freedom’ is said to be of the natural law because, to wit, the distinction of possessions and slavery were not brought in by nature, but devised by human reason for the benefit of human life.”

So, as Rome sees it, property is for common good. You may own it, but it is for common good. Whatever you have that is more than you need will be given to others. Does this mean in practical terms that if you own anything, you will be taxed to death so that the state may collect revenues to support those who have not?

You will own nothing but you will be happy?

It may also mean, as has happened in South Africa, that if your house is vacant, squatters may come in to occupy your home, and nothing is done to remove them, while you continue to pay the bills. Make no mistake, such things have happened and are occurring today.

Pius XI tells us this in his 1931 encyclical Quadragesimo Anno:

Under fascism, property owners may keep their property titles and deeds, but the use of their property is, as Leo XIII wrote, "common". Fascism is a form of socialism that retains the forms and trappings of capitalism, but not its substance. Under fascism, property titles and deeds are intact, but the institution of private property has disappeared. [in Australia property deeds are no longer held by property purchasers but are held on a computer data base somewhere, who knows where?] Government regulations and mandates have replaced it. For this distinction between legal ownership and actual use, the fascists owe a debt to the Roman Church-State.

YE CANNOT DRINK
THE CUP OF THE LORD, AND THE CUP OF DEVILS:

YE CANNOT BE PARTAKERS OF
THE LORD'S TABLE, AND OF THE TABLE OF DEVILS.

WITH PAGAN
LOOMING, WHICH WAY WILL
'CHRISTIANS' BE FOCUSED?

ON THE WORD OF GOD, OR THE LIES OF SATAN? T.W.S.

Jesus asked a rich man to give up his riches & follow Him. He refused.

How many would give up Christmas for Jesus?

FOR CHRIST & AGAINST ANTICHRIST

VOTE NO REPUBLIC

Australian Monarchist League
Protecting Our Constitution

I mention this, because just as those courtiers of the 11th century A.D. looked upon Canute as godlike, Craig Foster, the co-chair of the Australian Republican Movement, seems to blame the King for every ill that may have taken place over past centuries.

Foster talks about the deaths and torture that occurred during the Mau Mau rebellion of 1952-1960 and then goes on about slavery, but obviously not its abolishment by the British government in 1807 and 1833. Britain was the first country not just to abolish slavery but to actively fight against it.

In fact, since the 1780s British politicians had led the abolitionist movement against slavery and in 1788 the first Governor in Australia, Arthur Phillip (pictured alongside), decreed on behalf of King George III, that no slavery would exist in the new colony of New South Wales.

And, of course, there is the matter of racism. According to Foster, the King and members of the royal family are racists, but remember how the King, then Prince of Wales, escorted Ms Meghan Markle into the church to marry his son and how he stopped and helped Ms Markle's mother Ms Doria Ragland, down from her pew and chaperoned her out of the church. Was this the sign of a racist? Of course not.

If republicans want to blame someone for racism and slavery why not point the finger at their beloved Republic of the United States of America, where a form of apartheid officially existed until just over 50 years ago!

If the republicans had a leg to stand on, would they not talk about the Constitution and tell us about their plans to amend it to bring on their presidential republic, instead of propagating lies and innuendo against the King or is this going to be like the Voice campaign all over again where no details of the changes to be made were purposefully not revealed?

Yours sincerely

Maori 1st, King 2nd: Indigenous MPs Break From Tradition During Swearing In

The Māori Party has also been criticised for referring to King Charles III as 'Hare' which can also mean 'skin rash or sore.' (The Epoch Times)

The six members of the 54th New Zealand Parliament who belong to Te Paati Māori (The Māori Party) have broken with tradition at the swearing-in of new MPs.

The parliamentarians changed the oaths they delivered during the swearing-in ceremony, offering allegiance to their people first, and then to the Crown.

Several wore traditional costumes, and some sang waiata (songs), or issued traditional challenges.

They all later approached the clerk of the House and swore allegiance to King Charles III, but the two caused further debate by referring to the monarch not as "Kingi Tiare," the official reference to the king if spoken in Māori, but as "Kingi Harehare."

Te Paati Māori co-Leader Rawiri Waititi told local media that Harehare was an alternative translation of Charles and that "Hare" is a word that can mean Charles in some areas of New Zealand and that he has an uncle called Charles whom he refers to as "Hare."

However, it can also mean skin rash or sore, or "something offensive." ....

ACT Party Leader David Seymour has branded the party's tactics as "divisive."

"New Zealanders elected a government that will treat people equally, regardless of their race. The sooner the Māori Party comes to terms with that—and start providing solutions for Māori instead of divisive theatrics—the better," he wrote on X (formerly Twitter) on Dec. 5.
